Be Brave and Happy.

"The Only McNichol Will Help You."

"Ah, yes, it is easy enough to preach," said the man with no home or friends, "to talk of things that are not yours. When a man has no home or friends, how can he preach?"

"It is all well enough for a careful chap who saves each week an amount. He only wishes to fill the gaps. With money he can do it. With money he can do it. With money he can do it."

"Now you are the chap that McNichol starts with. He says that you'll keep improving. He says that you'll keep improving. He says that you'll keep improving."

"Just let your wife know this. She'll give you hope and ease from care. And Mac-well, he'll surprise you. Home is man's friend, first and last. With money he can do it. With money he can do it. With money he can do it."

"Let me tell you the truth, my friend. Let me tell you the truth, my friend. Let me tell you the truth, my friend."

"Yes, it is true that nothing makes a man so happy as to sit down before his own hearthstone with his feet on the floor, and see the sun shining on the windows, and feel the breeze on his face, and know that all this luxury and comfort is his for the week. The only McNichol."

A HIGH OLD TIME.

The School Board Meeting This Evening Promises Unusually Excitement.

Notice of Reorganization Will Be Given and Some Thundering Speeches Are Expected.

The Solid Eleven Will Probably Vote to Open the Boxes in the Kelly-Standing Contest—The O'Hearn Case to Be Brought Up Again—Director Bolman Interviewed on His Position—He Tells What He Meant When He Said Mr. Miller Was His Heart's Choice—President Miller Takes a Cheerful View of the Situation—He Has Not Abandoned Hope.

At the meeting of the School Board this evening, the notice of reorganization at the next regular meeting will be given, and an exciting time is expected. Walter F. McEntire has already announced his intention of "making Rome howl" in case of any such action.

taken by the opposition, and though he is fully able to do so without any help, he will probably receive some assistance from his colleagues. What Bismarck likely be accused, "Tartar Teutonicus" will then make the peace of the neighborhood in great liability of being broken.

The manner in which the notice will be given has not been fully determined on, but will be decided at a caucus of six or eight leaders of the opposition before the board meeting this evening. It will probably be brief and formal, as there will be an abundant opportunity for explanation in the discussion which its introduction is thought sure to cause. The rules of the board prescribe that notice of the removal of any officer must be given a month in advance, and that a removal cannot be made except for sufficient cause. The opponents of President Miller have been deliberating for a week or so as to what cause they would allege for his removal, and had some difficulty in reaching an agreement, if they have reached one at all. Some wanted the grounds alleged to be that he had been unfair in the selection of his committees, and wished to have the Restriction Committee cited as proof of this assertion. The Restriction Committee was appointed on motion of an opponent of the President's, and yet it is claimed that Mr. Miller made it up in such a manner as to render the would-be restriction report a mere nothing. Others, however, were not in favor of such a charge, but were in favor of putting forward the charge of "insufficient cause" necessary under the rules that President Miller had introduced.

The boxes will be given over. Besides giving notice of reorganization, the solid eleven, as the opposition is now termed, will vote in opposition to the reorganization of the board. The three principal measures on which they are expected to vote are: the majority report of the special committee in the Kelly-Standing contest; the building committee report; and the report of the committee on the O'Hearn case. The majority report of the special committee in the Kelly-Standing contest; the building committee report; and the report of the committee on the O'Hearn case. The majority report of the special committee in the Kelly-Standing contest; the building committee report; and the report of the committee on the O'Hearn case.

Director Bolman when seen this morning said that the opposition intended to proceed strictly according to the rules of the board in making a removal. He said he believed that the removal of an officer would be a very serious matter, and that he would not be removed without a very good reason. He said he would not be removed without a very good reason.

President Miller, when seen by a reporter, was in quite a jolly mood for a man threatened with deposition. He said he believed it was customary for men about to be deposed to tell newspaper men what they believed, and that he would do so. He said he would do so.

"On what do you base your hopes for a re-privilege?" "I firmly believe that there are too many good men in this board to let a bad man stay in it. I believe that there are too many good men in this board to let a bad man stay in it."

"I suppose you will die game?" said the reporter. "Oh, they will die game enough if they will. They will be able to do what they say they will do. They will be able to do what they say they will do."

President Miller, when seen by a reporter, was in quite a jolly mood for a man threatened with deposition. He said he believed it was customary for men about to be deposed to tell newspaper men what they believed, and that he would do so. He said he would do so.

THE LOTTERY BILL INDEFINITELY POSTPONED IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Investigation of the Charges of Bribery to Begin at Once—An Exciting Scene in the Lower Branch of the General Assembly—An Appeal From Louisiana Lottery Share.

REMARKS, N. D., Feb. 11.—The excitement over the lottery bill reached the climax yesterday, in the Senate Mr. Bell (Dem.) introduced a bill calling for an investigation of the charges of bribery against the members who had voted in favor of its passage.

No sooner had the resolution been introduced than Senator Lamore, Republican, dashed the resolution to the ground. He said that this resolution cast on the Republican party of the State. For one, he said, he defied any man to point at one corrupt act of his, either in the State Convention, in the election of United States Senators or voting for the lottery bill. He would favor the resolution, and hoped that the investigation would be full and complete.

Senator Swanson followed in a similar vein and scored those who had been circulating the reports, branding them as hypocrites and blackmailers. He said that he would support the resolution, and hoped that the men who had been making the charges would be brought to account.

It MADE THEM SQUIRM. The Democrats who introduced the resolution, replied by saying that their resolution seemed to make the Republicans squirm. He voted for the lottery bill as did every one of the seven Democrats in the Senate, and they knew that it was not a bribe. He said that he would support the resolution, and hoped that the men who had been making the charges would be brought to account.

"This is a bill for the specific performance of a contract," said the judge. He said that the plaintiff had introduced evidence to show that the contract was a valid one, and that the defendant had refused to perform it.

THE people of South Dakota must be seriously thankful that they are on the right side of the Dakota split.

IS THE indefinite postponement of the lottery bill in the North Dakota Legislature merely a Branham gas bill trick?

SENATOR VEST has not added to his strength in the State by his dicker to turn the Democratic party over to the O'Day railroad gang.

THE people of Salt Lake City pointed out the proper way to put down Mormonism by voting it down. The ballot box beats the test oath.

THE good work of the Post-Dispatch market reports is appreciated in every State within the radius of the commercial activity of St. Louis.

THE "Frisco suit" seems to have resolved itself into a case in which the State serves as a cat's paw to pull political chestnuts out of the fire. If the State gets "roasted" the people will know whom to thank for it.

IT is important that the school children should learn to know "Old Glory" when they see it, but it is more important that they should know all that it represents.
The lesson which the flags over the St.
Louis public school buildings should teach is the lesson of freedom and equal justice for all.

THAT certain Democratic officials should combine to turn over the party machinery and the State to the John O'Day railroad gang is sufficient to make the Missouri Democrats blush for their officials. It would have meant bringing disaster to the party in order that they might gain their personal ends.

THERE is a Federal law forbidding the use of the mails for lottery advertisements by means of letters or circulars. But no mention is made in the law of newspapers containing lottery advertisements. If the letter or circular concerning lottery advertisements is pernicious the newspaper containing lottery advertisements is even more pernicious. This is a serious defect in the law which should be amended.

THE reason for the Burke blunder is made apparent by revelations in yesterday's Post-Dispatch concerning the deal by which O'Day was to be made Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. The appointment of Burke was the lever by which DOWNING expected to keep his office. The deal was no greater failure than Burke has proved himself as Chief Grain Inspector.

If the ladies and the sober, moral church members of Lathrop cannot set an example of orderly, law-abiding conduct, the community must be in a bad way.
When they turn out to mob saloon-keepers and destroy their property by mob violence they put themselves on a level with the worst class of law-breakers, and send abroad a very bad impression as to the moral average of the community they live in.

THE New York World finds from the books of the Commissioner of Taxes that CALVIN S. BURKE, whose place of business is given as No. 10 Wall street and his residence as No. 63 Fifth avenue, has been regularly assessed in New York City since 1887 on $5,000 worth of personal property.
For the last five years he has escaped assessment on personal property in Ohio by claiming to be a resident of New York.
How did he escape assessment on his millions in New York? How will he avoid the payment of the bill for $2,000 of back taxes which the Ohio authorities have made out against him since he claimed as a candidate for Senator that he had never ceased to be a citizen of Ohio? How can a man who lives in a splendidly furnished Fifth avenue mansion, and who is able to give $200,000 to a campaign fund, swear that his personal property is worth only the paltry sum of $5,000?

THE GOVERNOR'S MACHINE.

Our Governor's long agony over the appointment of two Police Commissioners for Kansas City has reached an unhappy conclusion. THOMAS CORRIGAN, better known as BOSS CORRIGAN, refuses to accept half of the loaf he bargained for when he fixed the Jackson County delegation for FRANCIS. His brother BARNY therefore refuses to serve with Judge Gin-son's man, ROZELLE, on the Police Board.

Judge GIBSON has Congressional aspirations, and Congressman TARNSEY is a near kinsman of the CORRIGANS. Moreover, there is a big water-works fight coming on, in which the CORRIGANS, as large property holders, will antagonize the Mastin interest known as "The National Waterworks Co. of New York," and they seem to demand that the Governor shall either be for them or against them in that fight and shall either fulfill his contract to the letter or repudiate it altogether. It is understood that the contract was closed through one of the street railroad politicians of St. Louis, and that repudiation would produce a serious derangement of the Governor's political machinery on both sides of the State.

It will be interesting to note which side shall back down in this case. Ex-Mayor GIBSON, who has since been appointed to a vacant judgeship, was made a member of that Jackson County delegation to keep it from trading FRANCIS off in convention, but it was only at the personal request of FRANCIS that BOSS CORRIGAN let GIBSON be a delegate. The BOSS is therefore naturally unwilling to let the pay for that delegation with one who has already been rewards with a judgeship, and who represents a distinctly opposite interest in local politics.

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK.

One of those strange freaks of human nature by which bigotry and passion turn back the clock of civilization and reverse the conditions of society is exemplified in the town of Lathrop, Mo.

For the time being the intelligent, industrious, Christian people of that town are the lawless elements. The ladies of Lathrop, whose best interest it is to preserve order, suppress the slightest tendency to riot and crime and maintain the laws and the officials who are sworn to enforce them in the discharge of their duties, are members of a lawless mob formed for the violation of law and the destruction of property, and are in open defiance of organized society and recognized authority.
They are sustained in their attitude by a large element of conservative, intelligent business men. Even the pastors of the churches, whose duty it is to preach obedience to authority and respect of law, sus-tain and endorse the action of the women in breaking into saloons and emptying the liquor from therein into the gutters. They are now counseling lawlessness, and are threatening the law officers with personal violence should they attempt to enforce the law against the offending women.

Such pernicious doctrine as that mob law is sometimes justified is openly preached by presumably sensible men.

It is alleged in justification of the wrecking of the saloons that the saloon-keepers were violating the law with the connivance of the authorities. But does one wrong justify another? Does the lawlessness of the saloon-keepers justify a resort to mob law on the part of other citizens? The citizens of Lathrop have the ballot and the machinery of orderly government through which to right wrong and secure the enforcement of the laws. By resorting to violence they are inviting violence again and are trampling under foot laws far more important for the preservation of peace, justice and the rights of all, than those the violation of which they are avenging. They are planting the seeds of anarchy and cannot complain should they reap a rich harvest of crime.

It is very probable that the Democratic majority in the Ohio Legislature will utilize the opportunity to gerrymander the Congressional and legislative districts of that State. But nothing can be more ridiculous than the virtuous indignation with which the Republicans pretend to oppose this contemplated wickedness. They have set the example, not only in Ohio, but wherever they had the power and opportunity. It is unfortunate that neither party is in a position to rebuke the other for this sort of thing. Every Democrat and every Republican true to his professed principles should aim to apportion representation so that each party in the State would be represented in legislation as nearly as possible in proportion to the number of its voters. But in fact neither party ever does this when it can, by gerrymandering, secure a legislative majority out of all proportion to its popular strength.

A WITNESS in a contested election case in the Ohio Legislature testified that he was hired by the Republican managers to watch the counting of the ballots for the purpose of seeing how many tickets marked in a certain way came out of the box. In reply to a question he said that a certain number of votes had been contracted for, and the marking on the tickets was a test of the number delivered.

This probably explains why the Republican leaders in the strong Republican States of Ohio and Pennsylvania are so solid and firm in their opposition to the Australian ballot reform.

INDIGNANT citizens of Kansas say that the begging committees sent into other States to solicit aid for starving people in the new counties are sounder doing this thing for their own personal benefit.
It does seem incredible that any new Kansas settlers should have to send to other States for help when Kansas has more grain than her railroads can carry to market, and her farmers are actually burning corn as the cheapest fuel to be had in some sections.

while his dress pumps are of the finest German patent leather and No. 9 in size.

JULIUS FERRY has returned to Paris from the South of France much changed for the worse. His features are now white, and his face is marked by lines of age and care.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY, the "Hoosier poet," acknowledges that the proudest moment of his life was when he finally gratified what had been his greatest ambition, the purchase of an overcoat with fur around the tail of it.

ment representatives born abroad are eligible

J. S. D. DeSoto, Mo.—Horse cars have run over the St. Louis bridge. The exact date cannot be given by the Post-Dispatch.

CONSTANT READER.—A stamp placed in the center of an envelope has no meaning. The meaning of one placed in the right upper corner diagonally is "Do you love me?"

B. H.—There are a number of Democrats employed in the Post-office, but a stranger in

The case is simply one of ingratitude on the part of your employees. If you had not con-trouble than the one given you.

J. C. BARN.—The definition of the word Gentles given by Worcester is "One of an unconquered nation, one of a nation not Jewish;" a pagan, a heathen. Under the latter definition Ingalls is sometimes called a Gentle.

She: "Harry, you look terribly ill! Have as much as this evening!" He: "No, Maude; but you kiss like an old hand."

Impugning Their Veracity.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.
Congress might as well take the word of Jimmy Hope about the Manhattan Bank robbery as to believe an extension of the Central Pacific's time upon the naked assertions of Huntington, Stanford & Co.

THE LAND OF PROMISE

THE BOOMERS CROSS THE BORDER INTO THE SIOUX RESERVATION.

A Booming Cannon Conveyed the News That the President Had Signed the Proclamation declaring the land of the Sioux the New Land—Excitement in Border Towns.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Feb. 11.

His town site boomers got over the border
yesterday afternoon,
when the cannon boomed
yesterday afternoon,
with such rapidity that they were booming miles behind. At the sound of the cannon, teams hauling lumber of wagons of lumber were started on a run across the river.

One hundred Indian police were there, and were powerless to check the rush or in any way to control it.

Sections of the rich bottom lands were taken in a few moments. While the fight was going on down there others were on the uplands beginning within half an hour after the first shot to raise houses, United States Marshal Fray and Indian Agent Anderson tried to settle the quarrels among the invaders, but failed utterly. All of last night there was excitement in the city. The boomers were too anxious to wait for daylight and were not in the work of securing lumber and supplies. On the reservation boomers are continuing the work of building houses by lantern light. Nearly fifty branches of business will be represented in the new town, which will begin with a population between 5,000 and 5,500.

President Harrison's Proclamation.

Harrison's proclamation opening the Sioux reservation was made public yesterday afternoon, and was telegraphed to Chamberlain at 2 o'clock.

New York, Feb. 11, 11 a. m.—The stock market this morning was free from bear pressure for the time being, and consequently was extremely dull, but firm with narrow limits.
